1. Claims 1, 3, 4, 6 to 8, 15, 16, 18, 20 and 22 to 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claims contain subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The Examiner cannot find support for the newly added limitation of a relative permittivity of 2.6 or less. The Examiner acknowledges that applicants show values of 2.6 and less in the working examples but there is nothing to show that such values are obtained from the particular organic silicon compound as required by the claims. The organic silicon compounds therein appear to be completely different from that required by the claims. The totality of the claimed subject matter does not appear to be supported by the specification and this is considered to be new matter. The Examiner notes too that applicants' response does not cite any support for this language in their specification.

2. Claims 22 to 24 are allowed for reasons of record.

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
